PIERRE PETERS

Blanc de Blancs 'Cuvée Réserve' Brut • $231

2048 Champagne Pierre Péters has become one of the most recognizable names on the best-curated wine lists across the US. Rodolphe Péters is committed to expressing site specificity through meticulous vineyard management and precise winemaking, crafting wines which impress in their youth alongside remarkable aging potential. While the Péters name is heavily identified with the village of Le Mesnil, only one wine - the single vineyard Les Chêtillons is pure Mesnil; with the others being grand cru blends from the villages of Oger, Avize, Cramant and Chouilly.

BERECHE & FILS

'Campania Remensis' Extra Brut Rosé 2021 • $383

2079 'Campania Remensis' is a deeply original expression of terroir and history from one of the most sought-after domaines today. Raphael & Vincent Bereche represent a younger generation of free-thinking growers, but carry with them an incredible foundation of integrity and tradition. Campania Remensis is case-in-point: a beautifully structured rosé Champagne with crisp, airy aromatics and chiseled acidity rivaling the best in Champagne. Slow fermentation in large barrels and matured on the lees until second fermentation under cork.

GD VAJRA

'NS della Neve' NV Rosato • $92

2017 One of our favorite sparkling rosato from outside of Champagne, this wine takes its name from the small chapel on the slopes of the vineyard, dedicated to Nostra Signora Della Neve; a magnificent, steep vineyard, worked by hand from pruning to harvest. The soil, calcareous and poor, forces the vines to dig deep, giving the wine an extraordinary minerality. 50% Nebbiolo & 50% Pinot Noir, made in Metodo Classico, aged 48-60-months on the lees.

CHARTOGNE TAILLET

'Le Rose' Brut 2020 • $231

2022 There are few producers in all of Champagne who could make a better case for terroir-driven wines than Alexandre Chartogne. Since taking over his family's estate in 2006, Alexandre is constantly evolving, observing and questioning how to best express his individual parcels; this inquisitive and passionate approach over the past ten years has made him one of the superstars in Champagne today.

Le Rosé is a blended Champagne composed of Chardonnay, and red varieties (mostly Pinot Noir). Aged in mix 228L and 350L barrels.

Bianca Consigliata

LUIGI MAFFINI FIANO ‘PIETRAINCATENATA’ 2022

Campania • $118

267 Sun-drenched and aromatic, this coastal wine from Paestum in Campania combines the best of what the sun and surf has to offer. This unique wine is made from 100% Fiano, an indigenous, extraordinary grape rescued from the brink of extinction in the 1970's. Pietraincatenata is aged partially in oak barrels, which provides extra weight and complexity. Fun fact: the tiny town of Paestum is the site of beautiful and pristine Greek ruins, including temples to Athena, Hera & Neptune!

TIBERIO

TREBBIANO D’ABRUZZO ‘FONTE CANALE’ 2021

Abruzzo • $292

259 Cristiana Tiberio and her brother Antonio are touchstones for the changing face of Italy's greatest wines. Whether it be genetic research of native grapes, impeccable farming and winemaking, or acting as ambassadors for their own wines alongside all of Abruzzo, superlatives fall short of their impact and the unique, compelling wines grown on their second generation vineyards. This wine, which has more in common with Grand Cru Chablis vs. the lions' share of Italian whites, is world class.

VILLA BUCCI

VERDICCHIO CLASSICO RISERVA 2018

Friuli • $294

194 If Benanti's Pietra Marina and Fonte Canale are Italy's answer to Grand Cru Chablis, this is their proxy for 1er Cru Meursault. Layered, ripe and bristling with minerality, this is one of Italy's greatest and most complex white wines. Farmed at some of the lowest yields in the region, and aged in a combination of French and Slavonian oak.

KOFERERHOF

RIESLING ‘R’ 2023

Alto Adige • $113

211 In Italy's extreme northeast, the melting pot of history and culture combined with ideal growing conditions produce energetic, ripe, clean wines born of alpine sunshine and technical skill. Kofererhof produces small quantities of crisp, dry wines which are complex, easy to drink, and delicious with food. This old vine, dry Riesling is one of their calling cards.

VEVEY ALBERT PRIÉ
BLANC DE MORGEX ET DE LA SALLE 2024
Valle d'Aosta • $105

127 Valle d'Aosta is Italy's smallest region. Nestled in the Alps in the shadow of Mont Blanc, the wines from this region are grown in precarious, otherworldly landscapes and reflect their alpine roots; they are tense, bright, and occasionally rugged. Vevey's blanc, made from Prié Blanc, bristles of the pure mountain spring water alongside a touch of stone fruit and a hint of mountain flowers.

PAOLO BEA 'SANTA CHIARA' 2020
Umbria • $168

274 Orange wine (made from white grapes in contact with their skins during the winemaking process) is seemingly en vogue & au courant everywhere these days; even though evidence suggests orange wine may be the most ancient style of winemaking on Earth. Select producers have been making profound orange wines for far longer than recent entries seeking to capitalize on trends. Paolo Bea is the undisputed master of winemaking in Umbria; texture and flavor imparted by skin contact is complimented by fresh acidity, and flavors of honey, black tea, apricot, and mineral. An astonishingly versatile wine!

CANTINA TERLANO
TERLANER CLASSICO 'NOVA DOMUS' 2021
Alto Adige • $184

108 Terlan is indeed so awesome they have their own DOC- Terlaner Classico! We write 'they,' because this is not an estate, but a cooperative of grower-families, widely recognized as one of the best of its type in the world. This wine is 60% Pinot Bianco, 30% Chardonnay, and 10% Sauvignon Blanc. The dominance of one varietal over another varies with vintage, but 'Nova Domus' always exemplifies the best of each and represents one of the great white wines of Northern Italy.

PUNTA CRENA
PIGATO 'VIGNETO CA DE RENA' 2024
Liguria • $89

106 One of our all-time favorite 'crispy breezy saline' whites from cliffs overlooking the Mediterranean. If you are thinking Chablis, Sancerre or other reference point refreshing, seafood-friendly whites... look no further!

WHITES OF FRIULI

The wines of Friuli elude broad strokes and generalizations. Located along the Slovenian border in the northeast, Friuli offers delicious examples of both indigenous and 'international' varietals; though in many cases these interlopers have been at home in Friuli for hundreds of years. Friuli represents quality and diversity in white, skin contact, orange and red wines; a rare phenomena indeed!

Rosso Consigliato

ANDREA OCCHIPINTI 'ROSSO ARCAICO' ALEATICO 2022

Lazio • $79

370 Aleatico smells like flowers. This wine - a light, bright, unusual gem from Lazio - is chock full of them (Andrea is often confused with Arianna Occhipinti, star winemaker from Sicily - his wines are equally delicious and perhaps even more unique!) This wine is about freshness and lift, with notes of red fruits which compliment the floral notes. A delightful option which tiptoes between complexity and joyful drinkability.

VALLANA BOCA 2018

Alto Piemonte • $116

690 You may not (yet) have heard of Alto Piemonte, a collection of sub-alpine (read: cooler) villages north of Barolo and Barbaresco. Expect to hear more as climate change drives temperatures up and Nebbiolo in previously prized south-facing vineyards struggles to find balance. Boca is a village in the heart of the region, which carries a 500+ year reputation for quality wine; and the Vallana family makes OG classics. Expect juicy red fruit, dried herbs, and an open door to the world beyond Barolo and Barbaresco!

GRACI ETNA 'ARCURIA' 2022

Sicilia • $210

821 Alberto Graci returned home to Sicily in 2004, after the death of his grandmother, to grow grapes. The result has been two decades of impeccable winemaking and some of the purest and most elegant expression of Sicily's Nerello Mascalese grape. Thanks to the wine's fermentation in concrete, its fruit remains bright, vibrant, and lively. Saline and graphite notes round out the palate to make this one of Italy's most complex, lighter-bodied wines.

CHIARA CONDELLO PREDAPPIO RISERVA 'LUCCIOLE' 2020

Romagna • $194

726 Often maligned as a rustic country cousin to the more famous wines of Tuscany, Romagna Sangiovese is finding its place thanks to young, ascendent winemakers like Chiara Condello. 'Le Lucciole' ('the fireflies'), is a selection from a .8 hectare parcel rich in calcareous sandstone, full of marine fossils from the Pliocene era. Fermentation takes place in large open-top vats; aging entirely in large oak botti. The result is energetic, stunning Sangiovese with rich undertones and savory layers.

Rossa Consigliata

NINO NEGRI VALTELLINA SUPERIORE 'SFURSAT' 2019 Lombardy • $163

735 A curious combination of Barolo and Amarone, Nebbiolo grapes for this unique type of wine are slowly dried through autumn and early winter for a period of 100 days prior to crush and fermentation, followed by a short resting period in stainless steel. Aged in French oak casks for 20-24 months before bottling.

GULFI NERO D'AVOLA 'BARONJ' 2019 Sicilia • $152

349 As the first estate to launch single contrada Nero d'Avola, the Catania family of Gulfi have long been champions of the grand cru potential of the comune of Pachino. The organically grown grapes of Nerobaroni originate from the San Lorenzo contrada's sandy soils, a stone's throw Mediterranean. Baroni is dusty, rich, and complex, showing both incredible ripeness and floral tones of crushed violet and hibiscus. Aged in 500-liter tonneaux

CASTELLO ROMITORIO BRUNELLO DI MONTALCINO 2015 Toscana • $220

421 Castello Romitorio was founded in 1984 by Sandro Chia; in 2006, Sandro's son Filippo began the second chapter of Castello Romitorio's history with a new cellar and beautiful new vineyards. Meticulous viticulture and effort is taken to understand each plot's unique characteristics, which span from 200-400 meters. The team from Romitorio states: 'Nature is inherently chaotic, and humanity has always sought to impose order upon it. This is precisely the essence of what happens in the vineyard, and, later, in the cellar.' Critical acclaim and Romitorio's rise to prominence will come as no surprise once you taste this remarkable wine!

CASCINA PENNA CURRADO Piemonte

Cascina Penna Currado is the new, personal venture of the Penna-Currado family; Luca and Elena spent 35 years at the helm of Vietti, one of Piedmont's most lauded wineries. Their new project is of different scale, artisanal and famiglia to the core-yielding wines full of freshness, energy, purpose and place. On a personal note, Luca and Elena are two of our favorite people in the world of wine. The Dolcetto is whole cluster & stainless steel, the Barbera is partial whole cluster aged in Botti, and the Nebbiolo is whole berry fermented and barrel aged.

FORADORI

Elizabetta Foradori is an icon of Italian winemaking, ampelography and biodynamic viticulture. Her ever evolving work with the Teroldego grape (continued by her son), focuses on infusion style macerations, partial or full whole-cluster vinifications, and avoiding new oak. There have been further experiments with amphora, including the very limited 'Cilindrica' bottlings aged an extra year in a smaller, cylindrical amphorae.

AGLIANICO: TAURASI & VULTURE

Aglianico, alongside Sangiovese and Nebbiolo, is one of the three greatest Italian varietals. Aglianico is thick skinned, sun loving, late ripening, and tannin rich - producing bold, textured reds often aged in oak. It's two greatest and ageworthy iterations are from Taurasi and Vulture DOCG's, (think a marriage of Barolo and Bordeaux) while Taburno and Irpinia offer more accessible examples readily consumed in youth.
